

A noun is the name of a person, place or

thing.

A  verb is the
action word.

An adjective is a word that describes a

noun.

A conjunction

connects

individual words
or groups of words.

A preposition

shows direction
or position.

An  adverb
describes a
 verb, adjective

or another
 adverb.

An interjection
is a word or phrase that expresses strong emotion
or surprise!

An article is used to help a
noun.